Case: 2022-112-0033

1. On February 2, 2022, I along with Trooper Connor Keefe met with Rebecca Trayers at the Norfolk County District Attorney' s Office in Canton. The purpose of the meeting was to obtain information concerning the investigation into the death of John O'Keefe on January 29, 2022. Ms. Trayers was the bartender on duty at the Waterfall in Canton on the evening of January 28, 2022. It was learned during the investigation that both John O'Keefe and Karen Read had been at the Waterfall on that evening. Ms. Trayers brought the bar owner, Brigid Meehan with her to the interview. The following is a summary of what Ms. Treyers told us.

2. Rebecca Trayers said that she was the manager/bartender on duty that evening at the Waterfall. She worked 5:00 PM to closing. She said that they close by volume and would normally close around 11:00 PM or 11:30 PM. On that night, she closed around 12:00AM. Rebecca said that she recognized John O'Keefe from being a customer in the past at the bar. Around the time that he was in the bar, the wait staff had left for the night. When that happens, the customers have to come to the bar to order the drinks. She said that John was with a group of people at the high top tables. He was standing in an area between the bar and the high tops. None of the people from that group were sitting at the bar. John ordered two beers and she said that the receipts from that evening had already been provided to investigators. Rebecca said that when John came to the bar to order, she asked how he was and he said he was good. It was loud because of the music so Rebecca said it was difficult to hear. There was no open tab. At that time, the orders were pay as you go. Rebecca Trayers said that John's demeanor seemed fine. She said that John was not there very long. She said that he did not seem drunk. Rebecca said that she did not recognize the woman that was with John. She said that she did not notice him purchase any drinks for her. Rebecca said that she did notice a glass on the bar that did not belong to the Waterfall. Rebecca said that nobody in that group seemed highly intoxicated. She denied that she refused to serve anyone that night. She did not notice any fights. The group that John was with all left together when she closed the bar around 12:00 AM.

Respectfully submitted,
